Workshop on CAPITAL MARKETS

A two day workshop was arranged for the students of Aishwarya College of Education Sansthan, from Oct. 10, 2013 to Oct. 11, 2013. The workshop was arranged on behalf of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI). The workshop began by lighting of the lamp by the guest speaker and Dr. Archana Golwalkar, Director, AIM & IT.

The guest speaker of the program was Mr. Bakul Pandya, practicing advocate, Mumbai High Court having substantial experience in issues pertaining to legal aspects of real estate, media and entertainment and intellectual property. He was welcomed by Ms. Pooja Kothari (MCA III), Ms. Kiran Dangi (B.Com I) and Mr. Lochan Jain (B.Com I).

The guest commenced the workshop by throwing light on investment. He explained to the students that education is also an investment as it results into success in future. He advised the students to have a sound base of knowledge so as to have a successful career. The biggest sources for investment considered by him were human beings and their intellect. He also clarified the myths regarding investment and risks associated with it. He asked the students to understand the need of investment, core principles of investment and also the various investment options like real estate, gold, commodities etc.

The students got an insight into the world of investment and also raised their queries which were answered up to their satisfaction level. Participation certificates were distributed to the participants on behalf of ICSI.

World Standards Day

14/10/2013

An extension lecture was organized for the students, on the topic RTI (Right to Information Act) on the occasion of World Standards Day.

The objective of the session was to create awareness among the students regarding the rights they have to obtain any relevant information of an organization, under RTI.

The guest speaker of the session was Mr. Vimal Shrimal, practicing CA.

Mr. Vimal Shrimal was welcomed by Ms. Pooja Kothari (MCA III sem). He began by narrating a small story showing the Indian tendency of casual attitude regarding their rights. He explained the RTI Act 2005, with respect to its utility for a common man and the information which can be obtained about any government organization by the general public.

RTI provides accountability to the working of any organization and it also shows whether a company is abiding by its rules and regulations or not.

RTI gives the assurance that the work done by a company is authentic and legal. It also gives transparency to the work as it is more like auditing of records. Mr. Vimal Shrimal also said that being a student; one should be always aware of one's rights, which will inculcate a feeling of self confidence. He concluded by wishing the students a bright and successful career and asked them to be aware of the surroundings. A token of respect was given to the guest by Mr. Dheeraj Salvi (MCA V) and vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Pooja Kothari (MCA III).

Time to laugh...

A Russian visiting India went for an eye check up.

The Doctor shows the letters on the board "CZWXNQSTACZ"

Doctor - Can you read this?

Russian - Read?? I even know the guy.
